5. Recipients and categories of recipients of personal data

We may submit personal data to other companies within the Generali Group, to other correspondent companies outside the Group, authorised agents, as well as other persons in a business relation with Generali osiguranje d.d. for the purpose of performance of insurance contracts, processing of indemnification and recourse claims in the process of amicable settlement or litigation proceedings such as healthcare institutions, appraisers, entities providing help and assistance, legal representatives. Personal data may be submitted to competent state authorities, associations and organisations such as Croatian Financial Services Supervising Agency, Croatian Insurance Bureau and other state authorities for the purposes of due diligence and reporting and for the purpose of prevention of tax fraud and tax evasion as well as to comply with other obligations and/or Insurer's legal interests.

6. Why is it necessary to provide your personal data

It is necessary to provide your personal data to conclude and perform insurance contracts and if you fail to provide the information necessary for a particular type of insurance contract, we shall be unable to conclude the insurance contract. Providing information on your trade union membership is not a requirement for conclusion of a contract, but a basis to obtain certain benefits which you may receive upon conclusion of the insurance contract. The data on your trade union membership is collected solely on the basis of your consent which may be given by means of your declaration or a clear affirmative action (such as providing evidence of trade union membership).

7. Details on our intention to transfer personal data into a third country and information on whether a decision on appropriateness exists

In some cases, personal data is transferred to service providers located outside the European Economic Area (EEA). In such cases, transfers of personal data shall only take place if the European Commission has confirmed that the third country complies with a specific level of data protection or if there are appropriate protection measures in compliance with the applicable law (e.g. mandatory corporate rules, standard contractual clauses). You are entitled to obtain information and, if relevant, a copy of the security measures adopted for the transfer of personal data outside the EEA by contacting the Data Protection Officer.
